

It is finished! Christ hath known

Harm: J.S. Bach, 1685-1750

Jesu Meines Glaubens Zier
78.87.87.87

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a time signature of 4/2. It features a series of chords and melodic lines, including a prominent eighth-note melody in the right hand. The lower staff is in bass clef, providing a harmonic accompaniment with chords and a steady eighth-note bass line.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. It begins with a measure number '5' at the start of the upper staff. The musical structure remains consistent with the first system, featuring a treble staff with chords and a bass staff with accompaniment.

The third system of musical notation continues the piece. It begins with a measure number '9' at the start of the upper staff. The musical structure remains consistent with the previous systems, featuring a treble staff with chords and a bass staff with accompaniment.

The fourth system of musical notation concludes the piece. It begins with a measure number '13' at the start of the upper staff. The musical structure remains consistent with the previous systems, featuring a treble staff with chords and a bass staff with accompaniment.

It is finished! Christ hath known
All the life of men wayfaring;
Human joys and sorrows sharing,
Making human needs His own.
Lord, in us Thy life renewing,
Lead us where Thy feet have trod,
Till, the way of truth pursuing,
Human souls find rest in God.

It is finished! Christ is slain,
On the altar of creation,
Offering for a world's salvation
Sacrifice of love and pain.
Lord, Thy love through pain revealing,
Purge our passions, scourge our vice,
Till, upon the tree of healing,
Self is slain in sacrifice.

It is finished! Christ our King
Wins the victor's crown of glory;
Sun and stars recite His story,
Floods and fields His triumph sing.
Lord, whose praise the world is telling,
Lord, to whom all power is given,
By Thy death, hell's armies quelling,
Bring Thy saints to reign in Heav'n.
