The first system of musical notation consists of two staves, a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The music is in a common time signature. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with some notes in the bass clef. There are several chords and some single notes. A fermata is placed over the final note of the first staff.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves, a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom. The key signature has two flats. The music continues from the first system. There are several chords and some single notes. A fermata is placed over the final note of the first staff.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves, a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom. The key signature has two flats. The music continues from the second system. There are several chords and some single notes. A fermata is placed over the final note of the first staff.

If you will only let God guide you,
And hope in Him through all your ways,
Whatever comes, He'll stand beside you,
To bear you through the evil days;
Who trusts in God's unchanging love
Builds on the Rock that cannot move.

Only be still, and wait His leisure
In cheerful hope, with heart content
To take whatever the Father's pleasure
And all discerning love have sent;
Nor doubt our inmost wants are known
To Him Who chose us for His own.

Sing, pray, and swerve not from His ways,
But do your part in conscience true;
Trust His rich promises of grace,
So shall they be fulfilled in you;
God hears the call of those in need,
The souls that trust in Him indeed.
