

In the resurrection morning

J.E. Thomas, 1932

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves, a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom. The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The melody in the treble clef begins with a series of eighth notes, followed by a half note, and then a quarter note. The bass clef accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern. A measure rest is shown in the fifth measure of the treble staff, and a fermata is placed over the final measure of the system.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. It includes a measure rest in the fifth measure of the treble staff. A section labeled "Refrain" begins in the sixth measure of the treble staff. The notation continues with a melodic line in the treble clef and a supporting bass line. A fermata is placed over the final measure of the system.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece. It starts with a measure rest in the first measure of the treble staff. The melody in the treble clef features a series of eighth notes. The bass clef accompaniment continues with a steady eighth-note pattern. A fermata is placed over the final measure of the system.

In the resurrection morning,
When the trump of God shall sound,
We shall rise, Hallelujah! we shall rise!
Then the saints will come rejoicing
And no tears will e'er be found,
We shall rise, Hallelujah! we shall rise.

Refrain

*We shall rise, Hallelujah! we shall rise!
Amen! We shall rise! Hallelujah!
In the resurrection morning,
When death's prison bars are broken,
We shall rise, Hallelujah! We shall rise.*

In the resurrection morning,
What a meeting it will be,
We shall rise, Hallelujah! we shall rise!
When our fathers and our mothers,
And our loved ones we shall see,
We shall rise, Hallelujah! we shall rise!

Refrain

In the resurrection morning,
Blessèd thought it is to me,
We shall rise, Hallelujah! we shall rise!
I shall see my blessèd Savior,
Who so freely died for me,
We shall rise, Hallelujah! we shall rise!

Refrain

In the resurrection morning,
We shall meet Him in the air,
We shall rise, Hallelujah! we shall rise!
And be carried up to glory,
To our home so bright and fair,
We shall rise, Hallelujah! we shall rise!

Refrain
