

Would you know what most I prize

J.B. Reimann, 1702-1749

Wollt Ihr Wissen
77.77.7

Would you know what I most prize, know the truth that makes me wise?
Would you see my treasure-trove,
know my glory and my love?
Jesus Christ the crucified.

Who upholds my faith each day,
giving comfort on life's way?
Who from sin and guilt sets free,
and obtains God's grace for me?
Jesus Christ the crucified.

Who from sin has made me whole,
life restored to heart and soul?
Who can help me do God's will,
make me strong and faithful still?
Jesus Christ the crucified.

Who can help when sorrows strike,
and protect from Satan's might?
Who consoles my aching heart,
healing all its hurt and smart?
Jesus Christ the crucified.

Who through death has conquered death,
guards me at my dying breath?
Who gives me in heaven a place, grants me there to see his face?
Jesus Christ the crucified.

Now you know what makes me wise,
know my goal and what I prize.
As you live and when you die,
trust, adore, and glorify
Jesus Christ the crucified.

Johann Christoph Schwedler