

I know that my Redeemer lives!

John Hatton, D 1793

Duke Street
L.M.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The system contains six measures, with a measure rest indicated by a '5' above the staff at the beginning of the fifth measure.

The second system of musical notation continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. It consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. The system contains six measures, with a measure rest indicated by a '10' above the staff at the beginning of the fifth measure.

The third system of musical notation concludes the hymn. It consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. The system contains six measures, with a measure rest indicated by a '15' above the staff at the beginning of the fifth measure. The piece ends with a double bar line.

I know that my Redeemer lives;
What comfort this sweet sentence gives!
He lives, He lives, who once was dead;
He lives, my ever living Head.

He lives triumphant from the grave,
He lives eternally to save,
He lives all glorious in the sky,
He lives exalted there on high.

He lives to grant me rich supply,
He lives to guide me with His eye,
He lives to comfort me when faint,
He lives to hear my soul's complaint.

He lives to silence all my fears,
He lives to wipe away my tears
He lives to calm my troubled heart,
He lives all blessings to impart..

He lives to bless me with His love,
He lives to plead for me above.
He lives my hungry soul to feed,
He lives to help in time of need.

He lives, my kind, wise, heavenly Friend,
He lives and loves me to the end;
He lives, and while He lives, I'll sing;
He lives, my Prophet, Priest, and King.

He lives and grants me daily breath;
He lives, and I shall conquer death:
He lives my mansion to prepare,
He lives to bring me safely there.

He lives, all glory to His Name!
He lives, my Jesus, still the same.
Oh, the sweet joy this sentence gives,
I know that my Redeemer lives!
