

Let us with a gladsome mind

John B. Wilks, 1861

Monkland
77.77

Let us, with a gladsome mind,
Praise the Lord, for He is kind.

Refrain

*For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.*

Let us blaze His Name abroad,
For of gods He is the God.

Refrain

He with all commanding might
Filled the new made world with light.

Refrain

He hath, with a piteous eye,
Looked upon our misery.

Refrain

All things living He doth feed,
His full hand supplies their need.

Refrain

Let us, with a gladsome mind,
Praise the Lord, for He is kind.
