

Now let us see Thy beauty, Lord

Unknown

Edgware
C.M.

Now let us see thy beauty, Lord
as we have see before, and by thy beauty quicken us to love thee and adore.

'Tis by thy loveliness we're won to home and thee again, and as we are thy children true we are more truly men.

'Tis easy when with simple mind thy loveliness we see to consecrate ourselves afresh to duty and to thee.

Lord, it is coming to ourselves when thus we come to thee;
the vision of that loveliness is perfect liberty.

Our every feverish mood is cooled, and gone is every load, when we can lose the love of self and find the love of God.

So now we come to ask again what thou has often given,
the vision of that loveliness
which is the life of heaven.

Benjamin Waugh